

Organic American Ginseng Extract Powder

What is organic American ginseng extract powder?

Organic American Ginseng Extract Powder is made from the roots of Panax quinquefolius, a well-known herbal remedy prized for its ability to enhance vitality, improve energy levels, and support cognitive function. Grown in North America, American Ginseng has been used in traditional medicine for centuries to promote overall wellness and help balance the body's stress response. This extract is rich in ginsenosides, the active compounds believed to contribute to its health benefits.

Production Process:

- Sourcing: The roots are sourced from certified organic farms in North America, ensuring they are free from harmful pesticides and chemicals.

- Harvesting: Roots are carefully harvested at their peak, after reaching the ideal age for maximum potency (typically 4-6 years).
- Extraction: The roots undergo a cold-water or alcohol-based extraction method to retain the bioactive ginsenosides and other beneficial compounds.
- Concentration & Drying: After extraction, the liquid is concentrated and spray-dried into a fine powder to ensure ease of use and maximum shelf life.
- Quality Control: Rigorous testing for potency, purity, and microbiological safety is performed on every batch to guarantee the highest standards.
